SB 1742 - HB 2347

January 31, 2016

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires documentation associated with a request for proposal (RFP) or a request for qualified solicitation (RFQ) from a local government entity to not be made public until the intent to award a contract to a specific vendor is announced.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- This bill is only applicable to local government. No fiscal impact to the state government.
- Based on information from local sources, requiring information associated with a RFP or RFQ to remain confidential until the intent to award a contract to a specific vendor is announced will not result in a significant decrease in the number of public records requests received or processed by local governments. Any fiscal impact is estimated to be not significant.
